

World Youth Skills Day 2022

Transforming Youth Skills for the Future

When?	What?
17 June – 4 July	Encourage participation in our ‘TVET Youth Voices’ campaign Young people between the ages of 15 and 24 who are currently enrolled in or have recently completed TVET studies at UNEVOC Centres are encouraged to submit videos on the importance of youth skills for the future. These videos will be shared on our website and across social media channels as part of a global campaign to mark World Youth Skills Day (WYSD) on 15 July. Questions and tips for recording and sharing videos can be found here. The deadline for submissions is 4 July.
7 - 8 July, 2.00 – 4.30pm SGT (GMT+8)	Collaborate, network and share your perspective The symposium on ‘YOUth Matters: Celebrating Skills for the Future’ is organized by Temasek Polytechnic in collaboration with UNESCO-UNEVOC, UNEVOC Centres, local and regional partners. This inaugural WYSD Asia-Pacific event will be held virtually and aims to showcase the youth perspective on the future of work and skills in the region. Register here: https://wysd-apac-2022.e2m.live/
15 July, 10.00am - 12.30pm (EDT)	Join the virtual panel discussion A hybrid panel discussion on ‘Transforming Youth Skills for Work, Society and Planet’ will be hosted by UNESCO, the Office of the Secretary-General’s Envoy on Youth, and the ILO, in partnership with the Permanent Missions of Sri Lanka and Portugal. The event will bring together the voices of young people, TVET institutions, firms and business incubators, employers’ and workers’ organizations, policy makers and development partners. More information about the event will be available closer to the date: https://unevoc.unesco.org/wysd
15 July – 15 August	Promote our Skills in Action Photo Competition We encourage you to promote our annual Skills in Action Photo Competition within your networks. The winning photographers will be awarded prizes and selected photos will be highlighted on our social media channels. This year’s competition will be launched on World Youth Skills Day and will run for one month. More information about the competition will be available on our website on 15 July: https://unevoc.unesco.org/wysd
